Dear Tom:

Thank you for the invitation extended to [Redacted] and me to view your word processing system. The tour was very informative and we feel the information gained will be very helpful as we continue to develop our word processing centers. Lunch was very enjoyable and your thoughtfulness in inviting us was appreciated.

During our discussion I mentioned the possibility of one of our electrical engineers receiving a briefing on your uninterrupted power source. The engineer we had in mind is presently on leave until the end of June. I will be back in touch with you the first part of July to arrange such a briefing.

As our word processing centers materialize, we would be pleased to have you view our progress. Thanks again for your help.

Sincerely,

John F. Blake

During our discussion I mentioned the possibility of one of our electrical engineers also receiving a briefing ~~on your word processing system~~. The engineer we had in mind is presently on leave until the end of June. I will be back in touch with you the first part of July to arrange such a briefing.

As our word processing centers materialize, we would be pleased to have you view our progress. Thanks again for your help.
